HOT WAR ON SALOONS.

Worcester Preachers Give Up Church Work for Temperance Work.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 17.—Never in the history of Worcester and Worcester county has such an active campaign against the licensed saloon been waged as this year. The Anti-Saloon League has secured by subscription thousands of dollars, and it is using every means in its power to swing the city and the surrounding towns into the dry column.

So interested are most of the ministers in the work that they are giving little time to their church work and are preaching ex-temperance sermons on Sunday.

The leader in Worcester's campaign is the Rev. A. S. Gregg, who has given up his work as pastor of Laurel Street Methodist Church until after election. The fight he is conducting consists not only in getting voters to favor his ideas, but also in securing evidence against liquor dealers who violate the letter of the law.

Among the county ministers most feared by the saloon keepers is the Rev. Frederick W. Hill, pastor of the Hopkinton Methodist Church. He often starts out at 11 o'clock at night, and armed with a special search warrant, visits places where liquor is sold illegally.

Mr. Hill has spent twenty hours at a stretch without food or drink in a certain roadside looking high and low for the secret place where he was sure there was liquor. This week he visited Mike Casey's roadside in Westbury in the dead of night and after several hours' search found large quantities of beer and whiskey under the hay in the barn. He pitched several tons of hay from one loft to another before he found the liquor.

A COTTAGE WHOSE SIDES OPEN.

Ex-Senator Chace's Open Air Home in the Pocono Mountains.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., Sept. 17.—Ex-Senator Jonathan Chace of Rhode Island and his family have during the present summer occupied an ideal home from a sanitary standpoint on a top point of the Pocono Mountains. The building is situated 2,000 feet above sea level and has sixteen doors open on each side. Thus practically all the sides of the house can be opened, allowing the pure pine scented air to circulate through it without restraint.

Practically all of the time of the Chace family since opening the cottage has been spent in the open air during both their waking and their sleeping hours, much after the habit of those taking the pure air treatment for pulmonary troubles.

The building has all of the comforts and conveniences of a city home and the occupants are at the same time enabled to enjoy the benefits of camp life. The cottage overlooks valleys and picturesque ravines, through which for a distance of two miles rushes the Swiftwater.

Ex-Senator Chace's cottage is surrounded by twenty other cottages, no two of which are alike in architecture or construction, but all of which were erected after hygienic principles.

Broadcloths Will Be Supreme This Fall.

Paris and London Decree and New York Affirms It.

The great dressmakers are using Broadcloths almost exclusively for Fall gowns. The new model gowns shown in Paris the latter part of August were fashioned from this favorite material, and in a marvelous variety of colors. Terra-cotta, olive-green, geranium-pink, salmon-pink; the many leather shades, plum, rose-pink, reseda-green, heliotrope, lemon, navy and beautiful shades of brown and hunter's green.

The A. & S. showing of Broadcloths is thoroughly up-to-date in every respect and the assortment of new colors the most complete in this vicinity.

"Deauville" and "Trouville"

Are two famous qualities of Belgian Broadcloth—the "Deauville" at $2.49 and the "Trouville" at $2.40 a yard. The best qualities at these prices that have ever been shown—with a superb, lustrous surface that is permanent—weather-proof and spot-proof. In colors and black.

Unmatchable Values in Fall Dress Fabrics.

44 Inch Silk and Wool Eolienne, 69c. a Yard.
A favored material for light weight, graceful clinging costumes. It comes in the prettiest colors for street and evening wear, and cannot be matched for less than $1.00 a yard, now 60c. a yard.

54 Inch Zibeline Suiting Mixtures, 69c.
They compare favorably with those that cost twice the price and come in most attractive mixtures. A large contract made many months ago enables us to continue the selling here at the little price of 60c. a yard.

44 Inch Silk and Wool Eolienne, 98c. a Yard.
A quality that cannot be bought elsewhere for less than $1.25 a yard. It is here in all the best shades for 90c. a yard.

56 Inch All Worsted Cheviots, 69c. a Yard.
This is a Cheviot for which you would ordinarily pay $1.00 a yard in the largest stores. It comes in navy and royal blue, red, garnet, golden and dark brown. Sponged without extra charge 60c. a yard.

Silkdowne, 99c. a Yard.
A bright, lustrous silk and wool material that comes in beautiful, light, dainty colors. It should be compared with similarly named fabrics that sell for $1.25. Silkdowne sells here at 90c. the yard.

Main floor, West Building. Colors. Main floor, rear, Central Building. Blue.

A Tribute to Silk Waists.

"A careful trip through the stores of New York, searching for Silk Waists, proves that this is something in which Abraham & Straus is certainly supreme," writes an appreciative customer. She but adds to verbal comments to the same effect, and this, too, in spite of the fact that our prices are lower than anywhere.

$5.00 Taffeta Silk Waists, $3.98. Front is made of cluster of shirring; center of front has rows of stitching, finished with box plaits and small silk buttons; tucked back; very full sleeves shirred at top; separate stock collar. Colors are royal, brown, red and white.

Crepe de Chine Waists, $4.98. Front is made of pin tucking and Valenciennes insertions in bayadere effect, back and sleeves are also trimmed with lace, attached collar of lace and folds of crepe, fastened in back; colors are black, light blue and white.

$5.00 Albatross Waists, $1.08. Shirred front, finished with fine mercedized braid in a Mexican design, tucked back, large bishop sleeves, separate stock collar, finished with braid; colors are red, brown, black, light blue and white.

An Important Event in Black Silks.

Black Silks are the test of a Silk store. They are in steady demand. The values of the different grades are well understood by every woman. The fact that the greatest black Silk business in Brooklyn has been built up and maintained here is evidence of the character of the Silks we sell.

But today we present the extraordinary—an offering of thousands of yards of these staple Silks: every yard fully guaranteed; and every yard much under the low prices customary here.

It is a sale for which careful preparator has been made. It is a sale which has not been equaled in at least a year. It is the chance of the season to buy Black Silks for linings, for waists and dresses and wraps. Here are details:

In Addition to These Three Special Bargains.

98c. Black Peau de Cygne, 69c. 89c. Black Crepe de Chine, 69c.

$4.50 Black Meteor Crepe de Chine, $2.

We keep this beautiful double width 46 inches wide, satin Crepe right along and sell it at $4.50 a yard, but the maker had a few pieces with slight imperfections so slight you will have hard work to find them, and we bought them to sell at this price, which is altogether unprecedented, we believe. To save two dollars and fifty cents on a yard most people would forgive more than these hurts. Come early if you want to be sure of your share. Main floor, Bond Street.

Boys' Clothes at a Saving.

Our regular stock, made under our directions by our exclusive makers. The saving comes in the fact that even for a dollar or two more you will have hard work to find clothes as good elsewhere.

These suits are bargains—judged by the ordinary standard of value. But they are Loeser standard—which is very different from the ordinary.

Double Breasted Suits, $2.98.
Double breasted sack Suits, pretty patterns of mixed, double and twisted cloths, cut on the same models as the higher priced Suits.

Double Breasted and Norfolk Suits, $3.45.
Of fine fancy cheviots, tweeds, cassimeres and blue cheviots, trimmed and finished in the best manner.

75c. Tam o' Shanters, 59c.
Blue, royal, brown and red serge Tam o' Shanters, large shape, silk embroidered emblem.

Knee Trousers, 49c.
The finest Trousers at this price to be had anywhere. Our makers can hardly send them in fast enough. They are made of selected cloths, mixtures and plain black and blue; will stand hard wear and are sewed and finished in the best possible manner.

Better grades at 79c., 98c. and up.
Second floor, Elm Place Entrance.

Men's $1 Cheviot Shirts, 69c.

Absolutely new shirts made up with our own label in them and such shirts as hundreds of men will buy this Fall in good stores for a dollar apiece.

But the maker—one of our good makers—bought the cheviots for less than their worth and gave us the chance to have the Shirts made up for almost a third less than the usual price.

Black or blue stripes on white grounds in fine variety. Correctly shaped, well finished shirts with separate cuffs to match, and all sizes between 13½ and 17½.

About Half Price for Corsets.

Over two thousand pairs of them, too, and the well known and reliable "American Lady" make.

$1 Corsets, 59c.
American Lady Corsets in white, two models, one medium length, trimmed with lace at top; the other short, dip hip with garters attached; lace trimmed, sizes 18 to 30.

$1.50 to $2 Corsets, 98c.
American Lady Corsets in white, three models, of the best cut, medium length, also dip hip, well boned, trimmed with ribbon and lace, and one model finished on the bottom with silk; also 175 pairs of "Sonnette" Corsets of batiste and coutil, sizes 18 to 30.

Second floor.

Amazing News of 9x12 Ft. Rugs.

The only trouble is that there are too few of them—though perhaps if there had been more we would not have got the bargain. As it is, some 50 people can share to-morrow the best values in Axminster Rugs we ever heard of.

$14.50 for $21.50 Axminster Rugs. 9x12 Feet.
$18.75 for $24.50 Axminster Rugs. 9x12 Feet.
$9 for $16.50 Axminster Rugs. 6x12 Feet.

There is a good assortment of patterns and colorings for choice. These other special values:
$19.75 for $27 One Piece Velvet Rugs. 9x12 Feet.
$28.50 for $37.50 Royal Wilton Rugs. 9x12 Feet.

About French Wiltons. Every little while somebody comes in and says: "I can buy a 9x12 French Wilton for such a price"—something less than $50. And we investigate and find the other Rug is an imitation of the French Wilton, but a different Rug altogether.

Wesell 9x12 feet French Wiltons at $50. So must everybody else—whenever should break that price could not buy any more Rugs. The only difference is that the demand for these Rugs warrants us in keeping a larger and finer stock of them than you will find anywhere in this vicinity. We have the other Rugs, too, and they cost here the lowest prices anywhere.

The autumn stocks are complete and splendid. Come see them.
